In Memoriam

DAVID LIVINGSTONE,

MISSIONER, EXPLORER—PIONEER OF CIVILIZATION;
AND OF CHRISTIANITY IN AFRICA;

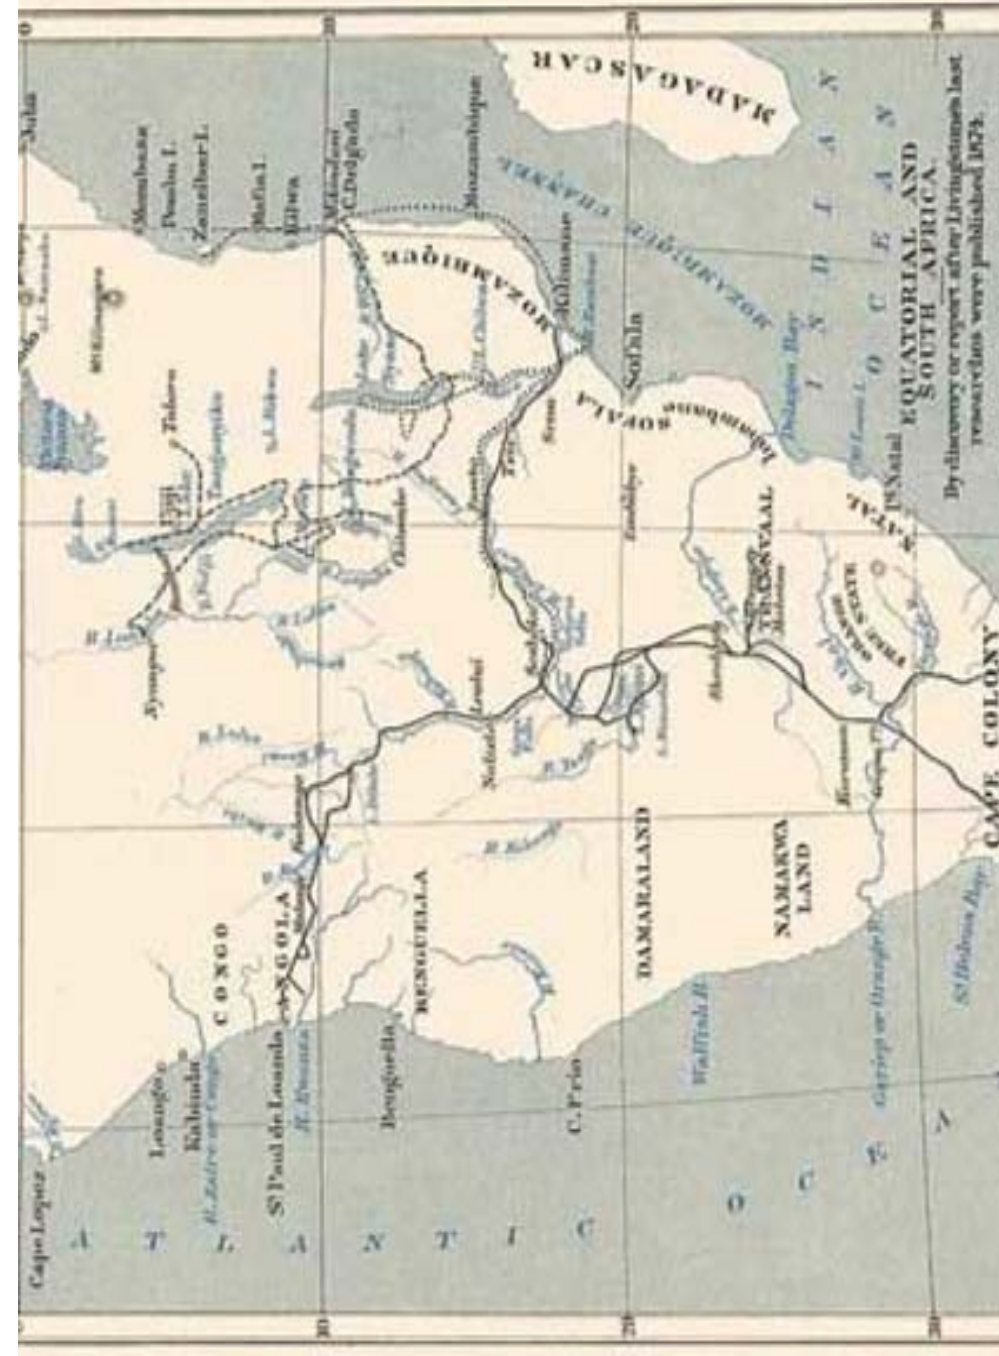

WHO, BY HIS DISCOVERIES, AND SELF-SACRIFICE IN THE CAUSE OF HUMANITY, MADE THE WORLD HIS DEBTOR.

Born at Blantyre, 1817. Died in Africa, 4th May, 1873.

Entered at Westminster Abbey, April, 1874.

O'er Afric's trackless Wild and hidden Inland Sea,
To plant the Cross—the hapless Slave to free—
Our Christian Hero sped, with God alone for guide;
His mission all but crowned—yet in that mission died:
The Spirit's fled, and for its Place—awaits the Final Day;—
In hallow'd soil, 'midst Nation's wail, let's shroud the Precious Clay.
