

Success Criteria

- I can use geographical vocabulary to describe the human and physical features
 - I can use maps, diagrams, and images to describe the environment
 - I can use titles and headings to describe the different features
 - I can use persuasive language to describe my location
- I can use interesting sentence starters and connectives
- I can use a variety of punctuation including rhetorical questions