

Choosing geography at university workshop (in person)

Royal Geographical Society
with IBG

Advancing geography
and geographical learning

Wednesday 23 July 2025

10:00am – 12:30pm

In person at the Royal Geography Society, South Kensington, London, SW7 2AR

This 2.5-hour workshop is aimed at Year 12 geography students who are thinking about studying geography at university.

Students will hear from a university admissions tutor and current undergraduates about what it's like to study geography at university. The workshop will include an interactive session to prepare students for writing their UCAS applications, and a short taster lecture.

Please see the agenda below:

Time	Session	Speaker
10:00 – 10:15am	Royal Geographical Society welcome and introduction to why you should choose to study geography at university	Alice Matthews (event organiser)
10:15 – 10:25am	Ice breaker	Led by Alice Matthews
10:25 – 10:45	How to choose a geography course that's right for you	University admissions tutor
10:45 – 11:15am	What is it like to study geography at university?	Two current undergraduate students
11:15 – 11:25am	Break	N/A
11:25 – 11:35am	Introduction to UCAS	Alice Matthews
11:35 – 11:55am	Interactive session: preparing for writing your UCAS application	Alice Matthews
11:55 – 12:20pm	Taster lecture	University lecturer
12:20 – 12:30pm	Student questions	Led by Alice Matthews