

Through all these changes I carried on working at the garment factory. By then I was an old hand. And because Md was no longer interested in me, I decided to move into the factory dormitory.

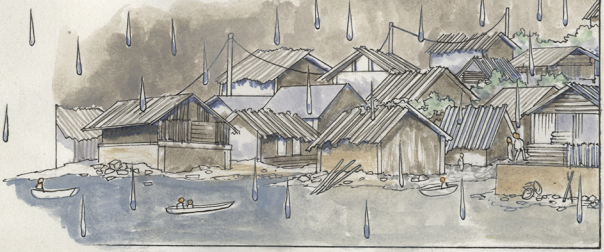

When Md found me missing from the room in Mohalla, he became enraged

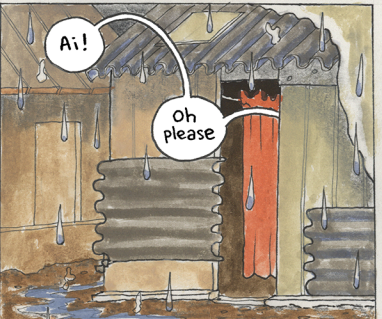

He forced me to leave my job

He made me move to a room in Korail*

He would only visit me

And beat me

And go

*Largest underserved community in Dhaka

After a few months he mostly stopped visiting at all. So I moved back to Ershadnagar.
